END IS PEACEFUL FOR GUS COULTER

Former Auditor of State Dies at Mayfield This Morning.

Had Been Gradually Sinking Under
An Acute Attack of Heart Trouble Several Days.

WAS A PROMINENT DEMOCRAT

Mayfield, Ky., May 25.—Gus G. Coulter, elected auditor of state on the Goebel ticket died this morning from rheumatism of the heart. He had been prominently mentioned as a candidate for governor.

A week ago Mr. Coulter, who had been suffering with rheumatism, was suddenly stricken with the fatal attack. He was made unconscious and his life was at once despaired of. Since then he has with slight, hopeless rallies been gradually sinking until the end came this morning.

Mr. Coulter died at 6:20 o'clock this morning. The funeral will take place tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock, the Rev. A. S. Pettie, of the Baptist church officiating. Following are the pallbearers:

A. L. Sherrill, A. L. Stinson, W. E. Norman, E. G. Fristoe, W. J. Webb, James Beadles. The honorary pallbearers are J. C. Van Meter, of Louisville; J. S. Taylor, of Frankfort; R. G. Albritton, J. E. Robbins, W. A. Usher, Gus Thomas.

Gus given Coulter was born in Marshall county, Kentucky. His father, C. C. Coulter, removed to Mayfield about 1872 and engaged in the practice of law and stock raising.

Gus entered the clerk's office of the Graves county court and continued as a deputy in that and the circuit clerk's office until he was elected circuit court clerk in 1886. He was appointed master commissioner of the Graves circuit court by Judge C. L. Randle to succeed Al McGowan, and at the same time was trustee of the jury fund of Graves county.

He at once entered the practice of law in 1892 and enjoyed a large practice from the start. This he relinquished when he entered the race for auditor of the state of 1899.

He received the nomination at the famous "Masonic Hall" convention and was elected. After his term of service he retired from public life to his farm at Mayfield, Ky., and engaged in farming and stock raising, in which business he continued.

Mr. Coulter besides his wife, is survived by four children two brothers, H. A. Coulter, the present clerk of the Graves county court, and E. R. Coulter, who lives in Idaho, and one sister, Miss Addie Coulter, who lives in Mayfield.

He was a member of Hinton lodge No. 369, F. & A. M., and Mayfield chapter No. 69, Royal Arch Masons and also a member of the First Baptist church at Mayfield.

DR. CALDWELL

WINS OUT BY TWO VOTES BE-FORE THE ASSEMBLY.

Action of Synod Is Declared Illegal and He Is Member of the Presbytery.

Greenville, S. C., May 25.—A victory by one vote was recorded for Dr. W. F. Caldwell, of Fort Worth, Tex., today in the case involving indirectly the charges of heresy against him.

The general assembly of the Southern Presbyterian church, after hearing and adopting several reports, resolved itself into a court to hear the continuation of the now famous Caldwell case.

This resulted in 79 votes being cast to sustain the complaint of the session of the First Presbyterian church of Fort Worth, and of Dr. Caldwell against the action of the Synod of Texas and of the Presbytery of Fort Worth.

Eighty-nine votes were cast against sustaining the complaint, and eleven votes for sustaining in part, giving a majority of one vote to the complainants.

The moderator appointed a special committee to investigate and report immediately on the items on which the complaint was sustained in part.

'Not Over Yet.' This action of the assembly does not decide as to the doctrinal issues in the case or whether Dr. Caldwell's belief is entirely orthodox, but it is a decision as to the constitutionality of the act of the Synod of Texas in directing the Presbytery to dissolve the relations between the Fort Worth Presbyterian church and Dr. Caldwell as its pastor.

The special order next to be considered by the assembly will be the report of the special committee on Closer Relations and the articles of agreement, which are likely to cause the most lengthy and animated discussion of the assembly.

Washington, May 25.—The railroad rate bill was taken from the speaker's table and sent to conference. This action has been decided on by Representative Hepburn, chairman of the committee on interstate and foreign commerce. The delay so far in taking this action has been caused by a desire on the part of the republican leaders to reach an agreement with the minority whereby the bill might be sent to conference by unanimous vote, making unnecessary the bringing in of a special rule.

INQUISITION IS UNDER HEADWAY

Railroads and Standard Oil Company Under Glass.

Inside Workings of Big Concerns Are Brought to View by Testimony of Witnesses.

GOING ON IN THREE CITIES.

Cleveland, O., May 25.—Investigators for the interstate commerce commission learned today that copies of telegraph messages sent or received by independent oil operators were stolen and sent to the New York office of the Standard Oil company. These accusations were made today by the independent oil operators of the telegraph department of the Buckeye Pipe Line company, one of the Standard's subsidiary concerns.

In brief the charges that the commission are asked to investigate are:

That ownership, leasing or contract right in 196,000 miles of double track enables the company's employees to transmit to 26 Wall street, the headquarters of the Standard Oil company, copies, surreptitiously obtained of all messages going to or coming from independent oil men in the territory involved. Many of these telegrams, independent producers and refiners declare, refer to contracts with or shipments over railroads. It is this fact that is held to bring the subject within the province of the interstate commerce commission.

Thomas, the New York freight broker, and the latter's clerk, L. B. Laggart, that they had received thousands of dollars in commissions from "unknown sources."

All of the firms had hired Thomas to attend to the shipping of their goods from the Atlantic seaboard to their stores in St. Louis and Kansas City, but none of the witnesses would say that these sums of money had come from Thomas. W. E. Emery, a member of the Emery, Bird, Thayer Dry Goods company of Kansas City, who admitted receiving from $1,500 to $2,000 a year, said he did not know who sent it, but "suppose it came from Thomas."

The Pennsylvania.

Scott, of the Puritan and Crescent Coal companies, declared that he paid for the use of railroad cars when he failed to secure his allotment, and that during a period of twenty-three days the railroad had furnished him with only one car. He also asserted that Michael Trump, general superintendent of transportation, had told him the company had intended to protect the coal wind-White company at all hazards.

When the attention of the authorities was called to the matter, Dr. Wikie, agent of the Fox River Valley Humane Society, went to the farmer and compelled him to send five of the children to school.

WOULD CONSTRUCT CITY'S CHARTER

Board of Public Works Will Institute Proceedings.

Questions of Three Appointments and Legislative Dictations Rankle in Board.

BRING SUIT AS INDIVIDUALS.

Jealousy between the branches of the city government has culminated in the employment of Hendrick, Miller and Marble, attorneys, by members of the board of public works to institute legal proceedings to determine whether the general council or the board of public works has the right to appoint the wharfmaster, marketmaster and sewer inspector.

Members of the board of public works have felt aggrieved at what were considered slights by the legislative body and appealed to the city solicitor to construe the charter. Solicitor Campbell was called on in regard to the appointment of these officers, but his view of the situation was not pleasing to members of the board. There was nothing specifically said about the appointment in the charter, and the only way power could be conferred on the board of public works was by "reading into the legislative grant" the implied authority to appoint these officers. Solicitor Campbell was of the opinion that the general council was acting within its authority when it made the appointments.

Then the firm of Hendrick, Miller and Marble was called on for an opinion, and in a lengthy written brief construed the implied authority to make these appointments on the board of public works.

The executive board has several times without avail tried to induce the two boards of the general council to take cognizance of the opinion, and now in order to settle the dispute, as to the right to make the appointments the board of public works will institute legal proceedings.

Chairman's Statement. Concerning the suit Chairman E. P. Noble, of the board of public works, said:

"This is an ex parte proceeding to construe the charter. We have endeavored to get the matter before the general council and have that body instruct the city solicitor to bring a friendly suit to construe the charter and failed. We, of course, can not direct the legal department of the city to institute proceedings.

"The attorneys are employed by the members of the board of public works as individuals. If it is decided the board has not the power to make these appointments, we will have to bear the expense of the case. If it is decided in our favor the city will have to pay the costs and attorney fees.

"The authority to appoint the wharfmaster, a marketmaster and sewer inspector is involved, but besides these matters we will have the charter construed in regard to the authority of this board in several other matters, in which we feel that the council is a usurper. Personally we have no interest in the outcome, but the whole proceeding is instituted to stop the unpleasantness between departments and for the good of the city."

Tadlock does not seem to be the same Tadlock we saw at the first of the season.

Fans are wondering where Freddie Miller is—why he does not pitch again.

Dick Brahm can pitch every other day. They ought to pitch the Paducah boy on the trip games and let him rest in home.

We are not kicking, but would like to know exactly how that 17 to 0 game was brought about.

Lloyd is after one or two good pitchers, it is said. His return to Paducah will be awaited with interest.

A Mummified Miner.

A miner who lost his life 2,000 years ago has been taken from a copper mine in Chili recently. Copper oxide had mummified his whole body. The mummy is in a fine state of preservation. Coarse sacking, evidently the clothing of the ancient Inca workman, was found with the body, as were also two mallets, one fashioned out of granite and the other out of ironstone. These implements were tied with thongs into bent sticks made as double handles. Both the hide and the sticks were as fresh looking when found as if they had been in use only the day before.

Perfect Sleep

Women Who Are Free From Female
Iills Sleep SoundlyPoints
to the Cause

How many women are troubled with insomnia! How few, alas, habitually sleep the night through and rise refreshed.

If you can't sleep it is because your nerves will not let your body rest. Women's nervous troubles come from female diseases. Their delicate organism is a network of intricate nerves. No woman can suffer from female irregularities without eventually ruining her nervous system. Get rid of female disease and the perfect sleep of childhood will return.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

cures all female troubles and restores nerve equilibrium and brings sound, restful, healthful, natural sleep. Thus does this wonderful remedy operate to bring health to suffering women.

Wakefulness and Nervousness Cured

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—Last spring, I lost my appetite, had headaches, and bearing down pains with cramps so that I was in perfect misery. I became wakeful and extremely nervous.

I decided to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and am pleased to state that I derived immediate benefit and soon enjoyed permanent relief.

Within eight weeks I was restored to normal health and felt refreshed and strengthened as though I had enjoyed a lengthy vacation.

Since that time I have recommended your Compound to a number of my lady friends suffering with female irregularities, and those who have used it report great benefit from its use.

AS TO GOOD OUTING SUITS

WHILE COMFORT is the prime consideration in an Outing Suit, due regard should also be had for APPEARANCE, and the value you get for the price you pay. There's a rare art in the making of Outing Suits—to have them well-fitting and shape-retaining, and at the same time light enough. Our tailors have mastered the art; our Outing Suits have successfully passed through the gates of Criticism, into the wide field of Public Approval. They look good, feel good, fit good, wear good; and will "make good" on all good things we say about them. Prices $12.50 to $25.00. All materials, all kinds of patterns; solid blues—and in all the shades of gray. The new, long, body-tracing coats, with peg-top trousers; standard styles; all sizes and shapes suitable for men of all builds. You cannot go wrong here.

BURGLARS

ENTER AND LOOT CHARLES RIPLEY'S DRUG STORE.

Entrance Effected Through Rear Door Which Was Left Unguarded for First Time.

The Charles Ripley drug store at Eleventh and Caldwell streets was burglarized last night and a great many razors and sundry articles stolen. Entrance was effected by means of forcing in a rear door. Generally some one is sleeping in the rear of the store, but last night the building was left unguarded, this fact probably being known to those who entered the place.

Razors, pipes, plug and smoking tobacco, cigars and combs with other notions were taken. One dollar in cash was taken from the cash drawer.

No clue was left for the police to work on. The total value of the loss will amount to something like $50, it is stated.

Growing Aches and Pains.

Mrs. Josie Sumner, Bremond, Tex., writes, April 15, 1902: "I have used Ballard's Snow Liniment in my family for three years. I would not be without it in the house. I have used it on my little girl for growing pains and aches in her knees. It cured her right away. I have also used it for frost bitten feet, with good success. It is the best liniment I ever used." 25c, 50c and $1.00.

AUTO STRIKES TREE.

And Mrs. Orme Is Thrown Violently to the Ground.

Mrs. Linnus Orme, of Fifth and Washington streets, was injured Wednesday at the home of Mr. O. L. Gregory in Arcadia. She was enroute to the Gregory home to attend a social function and in turning into the lawn the automobile in which she was riding, struck a tree. She was thrown out and badly bruised. Mrs. Orme spent the remainder of the day at Mrs. Gregory's, but returned to the city yesterday. She is severely bruised but not seriously injured.

Triplets Triple His Fee.

The stork sent notice to Lorenz H. Rubens, a grocer living in Ozone Park Borough of Queens, that he intended paying a visit to his domicile, and Rubens obtained the services of Dr. John L. Casselberry, who agreed to take the case for $18. But when the stork produced, one after another, three little Rubenses, Dr. Casselberry made out a bill for $50.

"There should be a greater reduction than that, wholesale," remonstrated Rubens, who is a grocer.

He would not pay the bill. The doctor has gone to law for his money, although Rubens was anxious to get President Roosevelt to arbitrate.—Baltimore News.

Herbine.

Will overcome indigestion and dyspepsia; regulate the bowels and cure liver and kidney complaints.

It is the best blood enricher and invigorator in the world. It is purely vegetable, perfectly harmless, and should you be a sufferer from disease, you will use it if you are wise.

R. N. Andrews, editor and Mgr. Cocoa and Rockledge News, Cocoa, Fla., writes: I have used your Herbine in my family, and find it a most excellent medicine. Its effects upon myself have been a marked benefit. Sold by Alvey & List.

Goes to Columbus.

A Positive Necessity.

Having to lay upon my bed for 14 days from a severely bruised leg, I only found relief when I used a bottle of Ballard's Snow Liniment. I can cheerfully recommend it as the best medicine for bruises ever sent to the afflicted. It has now become a positive necessity upon myself.

TENNIS

CONTINUES TO INTEREST SCHOLARS OF HIGH SCHOOL.

Prof. Payne Pleases Pupils With His Reading—Class Day—Iskoodah About Ready.

The tennis tournament being held by members of the High School Tennis club, is attracting a great deal of attention, and so far Edwin Randle is the champion. He has a few more sets to play before he can rightfully wear the belt, however. Mr. Randle first defeated Will Bell in a pair of singles and yesterday defeated Salem Cope. Bell is a senior and Cope a freshman. Today or tomorrow Randle will play Robert Halley and Dave Yeiser, Jr. The latter are seniors.

This morning Principal E. G. Payne gave a delightful reading of poems by James Whitcomb Riley. The feature was an enjoyable one Prof. Payne being a favorite generally in the schools.

Rehearsals for the class day exercises are progressing nicely, and it is said class day will be better than commencement night.

The Iskoodah, the High school paper, will make its appearance the first part of next week. It will be printed in the senior class colors, green and gold. This will be the annual number, and one of the best ever issued by the school.

WANTED GUS ROGERS.

Negro Couple Think He Can Perform Marriages.

Parthena Vaughan and John Ford, colored, last night were married by Justice Charles Emery. The couple was acquainted with Gus Rogers, deputy sheriff, and the woman thought he was clothed with authority to perform marriages and was greatly disappointed when she learned otherwise. She had searched for him several days to secure him to officiate. On recommendation of the deputy sheriff, Justice Emery was substituted and the couple left happy.

FROG HUNTING

IS EXCITING AND DANGEROUS SPORT SOMETIMES.

Party of Paducahans Mistaken for Band of Burglars and Halted by Negro.

The popularity of frog hunting, which is now at its height, will likely go on the wane, if all parties meet with the same reception that one did when it ran upon the residence of Spencer Matthews, a colored attaché of the local Illinois Central shops. It ceased to be a case of hunting with the frog hunters the tables being turned. They became the hunted, and ran into a full arsenal ready for service at a moment's notice.

Matthews resides about three miles out on the Illinois Central, and several nights ago noticed strange lights moving about in the woods near his house. He had read of the many burglaries, robberies and other crimes in the city of late, and decided he would arm himself and set up the proper defense against an invasion. He loaded his shotgun and pistols and trained them in every direction.

The lights appeared, but this time in more profusion. Matthews took the bull by the horns and cried out a challenge. There was a hurried exchange of voices from the darkness. Lights flashed and went out and foot steps breaking the dry twigs could be heard by the waiting sentinel.

Matthews' patience was about exhausted when the party came up. It proved to be a crowd of frog hunters who had been out "shining" frogs. They had forgotten to close the slides on their lanterns and Matthews thought it was an organized band of burglars or some other clique of even desperation.

NAVY YARD

LOSES IN SPEED CONTEST WITH PRIVATE CONCERN.

Newport News Ship Building Company Completes Battleship Louisiana.

Washington, May 25.—The delivery Tuesday at Norfolk to the government of the completed battleship Louisiana, of 16,000 tons, built by the Newport News Ship Building company, ended in favor of a private corporation the great struggle that has been going on for nearly three and a half years to determine whether the government could build at a navy yard a warship as quickly as it could be constructed in a private yard. The keel of the Louisiana was laid down February 7, 1903, at Newport News, and the keel of the Connecticut, which was to be built in competition, was laid down at the Brooklyn navy yard March 7 of the same year. The Louisiana was launched August 7, 1904, and the Connecticut followed her into the water a month later, September 29. So far the race had been close, but soon the private workmen forged ahead and the result was that the Louisiana was delivered, ready for service, probably some months in advance of the Connecticut.

Another point against the government was the fact that the Louisiana cost the navy department $3,992,000 while the Connecticut has already consumed all of the total appropriation of $4,212,000, and her builders have asked congress for $380,000 more.

STICK UP MEN

Frightened Away by Timely Appearance of John Ward.

Three negroes assaulted W. W. Threat, a farmer of Marshall county, last evening near Second street and Kentucky avenue, using a sand bag, but were frightened away by John Ward, the saloonkeeper, before they succeeded. Threat had $25 which he received for a cow sold yesterday.

No Alcohol Used.

President William T. Wardwell, of the American Red Cross, in laying the corner stone of the new Red Cross hospital, on Central Park West, yesterday, noted the fact that the hospital does not use alcohol in any form. Archdeacon George F. Selson, who followed him, congratulated the institution also on eliminating the beer ration, which used to be a regular part of hospital diet. The new building will cost $120,000.

DRY WEATHER

INJURES STRAWBERRIES AND RAIN ONLY CAN SAVE CROP.

Sell for $1.50 Per Crate On Market This Morning—Fine Berries Brought In.

Strawberries sold on market this morning for from $1 to $1.50 a crate and cherries for $2 a crate. The dry weather is proving hard on the berry crops and unless rain comes soon they will be dried up. The Sun today received three boxes of very fine strawberries raised by Mr. R. C. Potter, who resides on rural route No. 6, in the county. The berries are about the largest seen this season, and the flavor is very fine. Mr. Potter has about two acres of berries and these are a sample of the average berries in the crop.

Daily Thought.
"Confidence writes success, and cheerfulness adds inducement."

Now that the members of the board of public works really have taken steps to bring legal proceedings for the purpose of ascertaining definitely whether they or the general council have the right to appoint three city officers, and to what extent the legislative department has authority to dictate in municipal affairs, we only can express the hope that they will not involve the city in a long drawn out and expensive litigation. A lawsuit is an uncertain proposition in the matter of costs, and a legal question is never finally answered until the court of appeals has said the last word. It is true this is an ex parte proceeding—a "friendly action" as the parties involved in such cases like to have them called—to construe the charter, but it amounts to the same thing as suing the city; for the city will have to pay the costs and attorneys' fees of the petitioners if they make their point, while the water falls the other way if they fail. Certainly it is to be hoped that all jealousy and bickering will end with the suit. This is no time to express opinions as to who is in the right in regard to the construction of the charter. The general council was following precedent in making the appointments and its position was upheld by the opinion of the city solicitor. It was not surprising that the council declined to take cognizance of the opinion of a firm not employed by the city, which took issue with the views of the properly constituted legal adviser of the city.

Several members of the Commercial club already have sent in names of applicants secured in the proselyting campaign just inaugurated. That is all right as far as it goes, but every member of the organization should secure a name. It is only good business policy. The members of the club have invested a nominal sum in the organization. They have done so for two consecutive years, showing that they have faith that the venture is profitable. If it is profitable it is because it is helping to build up Paducah, and therefore profitable to every citizen. The measure of the possibilities of the organization is the extent of its membership. Every new member brought in adds to the potentialities of the individual investments in dues. It would seem, therefore, that every member would take fifteen minutes of his time for one day and tell somebody of the advantages of the organization. That is all the time it will require.

And, now, let us not forget to furnish to the Commercial club, those names of former McCracken county citizens who might be induced to attend Home Coming day.

O, BRETHREN, BRETHREN!
In some of the papers yesterday morning there appeared another screed from N. B. Hays, the attorney general, upon the subject of the public printing. There is of course nothing in his article worthy of notice, for the public is already disgusted with his miserable attempts to gain some cheap political capital in order to further, if possible, his hopeless ambition to run for another office. The people, fortunately, have too much sense to be caught by such pitiable and contemptible methods. The present attorney general has in nearly every instance refused to give his services as the law requires, on the several state boards of which he is a member. He is one of the five members, ex officio, of the board of sinking fund commissioners and board of capitol building commissioners. With rare exceptions he refuses to attend the meetings of these boards, either saying he is "too busy" or sending some insulting message to the board. The other members, desiring that he should have no possible excuse in his efforts to escape all responsibilities by claiming that he was not present when anything was done, some time ago adopted the policy of having written notices of meetings served upon him. Still he refuses them all aid.—Kentucky State Journal.

INVESTIGATE OSTEOPATHY.
It is a new diagnosis, a new cure aptly called "the Sane Treatment of Disease."
Osteopathy is a method of bloodless surgical manipulations to remove any obstructions interfering with the proper transference of nerve force, or the natural flow of the blood, or the other fluids, to the organ, or part involved. It liberates the inherent vital forces of the body—the forces which, when allowed their full and unobstructed way, have the power to gain and maintain a state of physiological equilibrium or health. In other words, allow nature to effect her own cures by a natural adjustment of any disorder in the system.
The power to heal is innate and inherent, and cannot be introduced from without, and Osteopathy cures by assisting and bringing into action that power. The taking of drugs does not and anything useful to the body—on the contrary, the effects are largely manifestations of the efforts on the part of Nature to eject and rid itself of the drugs, while the loss of energy following is nothing but the further robbing of an already lowered vitality.
Osteopathy is especially effective in cases of liver, stomach and bowel disorders to which Paducah people are sufferers, and I should like to tell you briefly how, and why, I can cure them so easily, if you will call.

TREE PLANTING
Valuable Information Furnished by the American Civic Association.

In response to a letter of inquiry addressed to The American Civic Association the following valuable information has been furnished by its president, J. Horace McFarland:

1. If you are to plant street trees in your town, it should be done with intelligent and careful consideration and not by random. It is always preferable, to use trees that are either indigenous or have been sufficiently tested to make sure that they will be successful.
2. The next matter of importance is to see that, if you are to plant whole streets at a time, they are planted all in the same kind of tree, and not hit or miss. Our great national capital, Washington, is a conspicuous example of how well tree planting can be managed, for there are great avenues with pin oaks, and others with sycamores, and others with tulips, and others with elms, but on no street there has been permitted a heterogeneous mixture.
3. It is next important to see that the trees are not planted too closely. Long-lived trees need room to develop.
4. You can assure your property owners that the modern idea is that the city had better own the trees. As your town grows it will be able to provide care for these trees. The best possible work now under way is in New Jersey, where there are tree planting commissions.
5. In respect to varieties of trees, let me suggest a consideration of the American elm, the pin oak, the red oak, the American sycamore, the English sycamore, the tulip tree, the hard or sugar maple, the red maple, possibly the Norway maple and the sycamore maple. Certainly omit the silver maple of the ash-leaved maple from your consideration. The white ash may be useful and is long-lived.
6. As to protecting the trees from boys, the best possible way is to teach the boys to love the trees by showing them pictures of good trees in your schools and giving them information about trees.
7. As to the trimming proposition, it must be absolutely restricted if you are to have good trees. If the trees come to you in fair order with a good root system, they will need the cutting off of all mutilated roots and a reasonable shortening in of upper branches to a symmetrical shape, cutting in each case close to a bud, smoothly. If they are then planted in large holes, carefully dug, and each tree surrounded by some good soil without any fresh manure, they should live and grow and require no other trimming for many years, save such as is included in rubbing off as soon as they appear buds and shoots on the lower part of the stem. Annual trimming simply for the sake of trimming is absolutely vicious, and must be prohibited. There is no more necessity for trimming a tree once a year than there is for trimming a person's ears once a year.
8. Trees while young must be staked if they are to do well. There are modern tree guards of wire which are good, but they are expensive. If you will plant with the tree a good solid, hard-wood stick, say 2 by 4, driving it firmly into the ground after the hole is dug so that it is substantially planted, and will fasten the tree to this by a band of leather, or old hose, or strong soft cloth, which is crossed between the tree and the stake, tacked on the back of the stake, the trees will be well protected while they are re-fastening themselves with a new root stem. Please note that the fastening of the tree to the stake is of the utmost importance, as if it is tightly bound to the stake it will chafe and hurt itself, but if it is held by the strap above described, which is looped around the tree and then crossed before the strap passes around the post, it will be in a sling and cannot damage itself.

METROPOLIS
Its Wonders Set Forth in Directory Just Issued By the City of New York.

The Greater New York directory is a weird and wonderful volume. Several men of letters have declared that the most interesting book in the world is the unabridged dictionary. No one heretofore has recommended a directory for other than reference purposes, but take up a volume, dip into its pages and realize within a short time that you have found out more about your town than you ever dreamed. If you look through the New York directory you will find there are enough people here opposed to vaccination to support a society with club rooms and a weekly paper. There are several journals devoted to the suppression of counterfeit money; at least three to marriage broking, and one or two to the conversion of Jews. One firm of Jewish publishers issues eight journals, the number representing eight different peoples on the east side. Two Chinese papers are listed, along with three printed in the Japanese language. The Armenians, Syrians, Hungs, Poles, Serbs and Russians are each represented by weeklies. There are publications devoted to Christian Science, spiritualism, theosophy, socialism and anarchy. The directory prints eighty-seven pages of lawyers, fifty-two pages of real estate dealers, forty-two of saloonkeepers, thirty-eight of physicians, thirty-nine of grocers, thirty-three and one-half of tailors, twenty-five of butchers, nineteen of restaurants and twenty-three of barbers. Only seven pages are needed for retail dry goods, ten for dentists, and seven and one-half for delicatessens. Forty-four New Yorkers manufacture macaroni; seventy-three deal in live animals. Half a dozen hospitals for dumb animals exist, in addition to one for birds. There are fourteen sausage foundries. Ten women and three men earn a living by mending lace. Seven practice phrenology. There are scores of fortune tellers. Two firms deal in peat moss; one man makes powder toys, one bagpipes, two bustles, one hoopskirts, one balloons; one large firm manufactures cotton favors, confetti and serpentine; three firms deal in keweenaw exclusively; four make masks; thirteen glassblowers are listed and one solitary man makes machetes, although the market in his line is slow.

About the Campaign Against Consumption.

Eugene Wood revives an important point in his discussion of "The Campaign Against Consumption" in the June Everybody's. He says: "When the New York Board of Health prosecutes a splitter, you never see a word about it in the newspapers to lead anyone to suppose that the fine was imposed for anything else than a mere exercise of despotic authority, and an attempt to force gentlemanly behavior upon the uncouth. It is a murderous practice to spit where others may bring the infection into a house on shoes or on skirts; where it may dry and become a powder to be sent into the air to be breathed into the lungs. Fortunately most of us are able to resist and overcome a pretty strong implantation of these germs, but the strongest man will succumb to a big enough implantation, and what is ejected from the respiratory passages of a well man may be just the required amount to turn the scale, to mean death instead of recovery. Cholera and typhoid fever have taught us some needed lessons in tidiness; consumption should teach us one more. In every street there ought to be places kept continually wet where we may spit. In every public place of assembly, churches, theatres, street cars, elevated and underground stations, there ought to be cuspidors. It isn't the least bit of good to threaten people for doing what they must do, unless some convenience is offered to behave tidily. So long, however, as we give the street car companies the right to use our public streets to make money for themselves so long as we humbly put up with whatever service they find they can render us without putting themselves out a particle, I suppose it is useless to expect those corporations to furnish spittoons, though we should die in windrows."

Complete Emancipation of Women Coming.

While it is impracticable to consider the law in detail, generalizing it may be said that woman now possesses (1) complete control of her person and of her property, real and personal, (2) freedom to enter into contracts, (3) the right to sue for injuries to her character, person, or property, (4) the joint custody of her children, though this is a recent development and it must be admitted that the excepted states far outnumber those where the rule is in force, (5) in four states the right of equal suffrage and in twenty-two others and two territories a restricted right, applicable only to school affairs. In some respects, the pendulum has swung far. That it is well-nigh impossible to convict a beautiful woman is known to every criminal lawyer, and susceptible juries are not uninfluenced in civil cases by the pitiful glance of sinful eyes, dimmed in tears. Well, let it be so, though we should remember that, in the language of Judge Bleckley, formerly of Georgia's Supreme Court, "in protecting women, courts and juries should be careful to protect men, too, for men are not only useful to general society, but to women especially."—General Chapin in "Women First," in Everybody's Magazine for June.

Negro Sells Loose Articles At Hendrick's Home.

Young Man Charged With Taking
Money Bears an Excellent Reputation in Country.

PURSE SNATCHERS ARE HELD.

Richard Tyler, colored, was employed by Attorney John K. Hendrick to clean up his new home on Broadway near Eighth street, but before he finished his work he had developed into a commission merchant and Col. Hendrick is glad the boy left the house intact.

Tyler had keys to the house, which has just been remodeled, and after cleaning up two days ago began to indulge in a few drinks as a relaxation from the strain of the work. With the increase of liquor came an increase in responsibility until Tyler owned the house.

He found stored snugly in a rear outhouse three iron mantels, some iron hearths, 60 feet of iron fencing and other sundry metal articles which had been taken from the house. He saw no reason for using the valuable storage space for such junk and hid himself to the junk shop of David Rittell.

Tyler sold the entire outfit, about $40 or $50 worth of stuff for 50c and Rittell sent his driver, William Mitchell after it. Tyler delivered the goods and Mitchell drove off with it. Tyler was locked up and finished his "high old time."

This morning he was held over for obtaining money by false pretenses, while Mitchell, who was first arrested for taking the goods was dismissed.

Tyler said he really thought the iron was junk.

Strange Case.

William Smith, a young man of the county, whose parents are wealthy, was presented in police court for the alleged theft of $275 from J. S. Nolen, a grocer. The affair so far is mysterious, there being no positive evidence against the young man. Nolen claims Smith rode with him and patted him on the trousers leg on the side where the money was stored. He did not see Smith take the money but missed it before Smith parted from him. He charges the young man with taking it, and the case will be tried Monday. The young man bears an excellent reputation.

Purse Snatchers Held.

Dennis Rowlett alias Riley, and Bartlett Turley, colored boys, the confessed purse snatchers, waived examination and were held over until $300 bonds in three cases. They are in jail.

People and Pleasant Events

Jolly Smoker.

The intense spirit of cordiality and fellowship at the smoker given last night by the Chess, Checker and Whist club, was not merely in the hearty handclasp or the pleasant words and smiles; it seemed to be in the atmosphere, the flowers, the music. The invitations promised the world-weary man an absolute change of environment—and the promise was kept.

A reception committee met the visitor at the door, and ushered him to a register where his autograph became part of the memories of the club. He was then invited to the hospitality of the punch bowl—and frequently thereafter. It was the smoker's paradise open boxes of cigars lying promiscuously around. At the head of the stairs of the second floor of the club rooms, Gilman's band made classics of very much rag-time music. Billiards and pool were the most popular, though the interest in chess, checkers and cards was a good second, while in pure fellowship and conversation there was no lack of participants.

On the bulletin board was displayed a letter from Mr. Max B. Nahm declining regretfully the club's invitation. Mr. Nahm declared his enthusiasm as a club man, mentioned the influence such a club could exert toward sincerity among its members, where every proposition must rest on its intrinsic merits, and closed with a suggestion that the possession of its own building by the club would be a vast stimulation to the ends.

The rooms were decorated with roses, geraniums, palms, ferns and flowering plants. The visitors during the evening ran into the hundreds, and all doubtless went away wishing like the small boy that Christmas came oftener than once a year.

Successful Affair.

The al fresco musical given by the First Christian church at Mrs. M. L. Scott's residence, 233 North Fourth street, was a successful affair artistically and from the view of attendance. The lawn was decorated with Japanese lanterns suspended from the limbs of trees and the Japanese effect was carried out on the platform where the piano was placed. Every seat under the trees was taken. Those who took part were: Miss Mamie Dreyfus, Mrs. Lella Lewis, Mrs. James Weille, Robert Scott and Robert MacMillen, soloists; Mrs. James Young, reading; Harry Gilbert and Miss Adah Brazelton, pianists; Misses Claire St. John, Marjorie Loving and Mary Cave in Japanese drill, and the High School Orchestra.

House Party Club.

Miss Lillie May Winstead entertained the House Party club last night and today at her home on Washington street. Cards were the order of the evening and the prize was captured by Miss Blanche Hills. The club is composed of six members: Miss Lillie May Winstead, Miss Frances Coleman, Miss Rella Coleman, Miss Blanche Hills, Miss Sue Thompson, Miss May Owen and each will entertain in turn.

As You Like It Club.

Mr. and Mrs. Eli G. Boone will entertain the As You Like It club this evening at their home on South Sixth street.

Party Tonight.

Misses Eliza and Dixie Hale will entertain a number of their young friends this evening at their home on Kentucky avenue.

Alumni Meeting.

The high school alumni meeting will be held this afternoon at the Carnegie library. Promoters of the association are working hard to swell the membership list and invite all graduates of the school to be in attendance.

RAILWAY CARMEN MEET AT JACKSON

And Confer With Superintendent About Wages.

Date Is Set for Next Tuesday, May 29, and Quincey Wallace Will Attend.

ASK FOR A UNIFORM SCALE.

William Renshaw, superintendent of machinery of the Illinois Central road, will meet the joint executive board of the Brotherhood of Railway Carmen of the Illinois Central road in Jackson, Tenn., on May 29. This authority came this morning, and the local members of the committee, Quincey Wallace, who by virtue of his office is the delegate from Paducah, will be notified today.

The Carmen asked for a date several weeks ago, and although various "grape vine" reports were published from time to time this is the first authority for a definite statement relative to the meeting.

Mr. Renshaw selected Jackson, Tenn., for meeting the Carmen last year. It is the most central point convenient to the orders, and it is thought an amicable settlement will be reached without parley.

The rate asked for this year is not, taken as a whole, an increase, but merely a general wage. The object of the order is to make the scale uniform the system over, and while some lodges may suffer a little decrease, if the scale results as it is thought it will, others will receive an increase. A uniform scale is thought to be to the best advantage of the order generally.

The 29th will be next Tuesday, and Mr. Wallace will leave for Jackson on Monday night.

Other Conferences.

Advices for dates for two more conferences between the mechanical officials of the Illinois Central and employees' unions came this morning. Supt. Renshaw will meet the committee from the Machinists on June 1 at Chicago. Supt. Renshaw will meet the committee from the Boilermakers' union on May 28 at Chicago. Both unions have delegates from Paducah and as the date for the latter meeting is set so close to the Carmen meeting, it is presumed that no trouble in agreeing is anticipated in the boilermakers' scale conference.

Mrs. William Corbett, of Camden, Tenn., has returned home after visiting Mrs. Emma Lawler, of South Third street.

Miss Marie Scovell, of Jacksonville, Fla., is visiting Miss Henrietta Koger.

Mr. John Donovan has returned from Chicago where he had been on business.

Mrs. Jack Flynn, of Memphis, is visiting her father, Col. R. J. Barber. Capt. Thomas Langdon, who has been ill for several months of malarial fever in Riverside hospital, is better and nearly able to leave the institution.

The condition of Dr. I. B. Howell, who was operated on several days ago in Nashville for appendicitis, is reported better. He is slowly recovering.

J. J. Slayton, of Princeton, Ky., who has been ill here of smallpox, has returned home. He was confined in the pest house while in Paducah.

Lieutenant Thomas Potter has returned from Cairo where he had been on business.

Attorney E. W. Bagby is ill today and unable to be at his office.

Alderman Palmer remarked that he thought the bridge matter an important one which should be acted on at

Habit-forming Medicines.

Whatever may be the fact as to many of the so-called patent medicines containing injurious ingredients as broadly published in some journals of more or less influence, this publicity has certainly been of great benefit in arousing needed attention to this subject. It has, in a considerable measure, resulted in the most intelligent people avoiding such foods and medicines as may be fairly suspected of containing the injurious ingredients complained of. Recognizing this fact some time ago, Dr. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., "took time by the forelock," as it were, and published broadcast all the ingredients of which his popular medicines are composed. Thus he has completely forestalled all harping critics and all opposition that might otherwise be urged against his medicines, because they are now or known composition. Furthermore, from the formula printed on every bottle wrapper, it will be seen that these medicines contain no alcohol or other habit-forming drugs. Neither do they contain any narcotics or injurious agents, their ingredients being purely vegetable, extracted from the roots of medicinal plants found growing in the depths of our American forests and of well recognized curative virtues.

Instead of alcohol, which even in small portions long continued, as in obstinate cases of diseases, becomes highly objectionable from its tendency to produce a craving for stimulants, Dr. Pierce employs chemically pure, triple-refined glycerine, which of itself is a valuable remedy in many cases of chronic diseases, being a superior demulcent, antiseptic, antiferment and supporting nutritive. It enhances the curative action of the Golden Seal root, Stone root, Black Cherry bark and Bloodroot, contained in "Golden Medical Discovery," in all bronchial, throat and lung affections attended with severe coughs. As will be seen from the writings of the eminent Drs. Grover and Barlow, of Jefferson Medical College, Philadelphia; Scudder, of Cincinnati; Edgewood, of Chicago; Hale, of Chicago, and others, who stand as leaders in the several schools of practice, the foregoing agents are the very best ingredients that Dr. Pierce could have chosen to make up his famous "Discovery" for the cure of not only bronchial, throat and lung affections, but also of chronic catarrh in all its various forms wherever located.

once, and urged immediate action in this matter.

It seems that each committeeman misunderstood what was expected, which caused the mixup in previous meeting—the incomplete status of the bridge matter.

The suggestion to meet Wednesday was favorably acted on.

Alderman Miller stated that he had secured figures on the contingent fund from the auditor, and found $23,000 remaining unspent.

On motion the board adjourned.

STATE OFFICIALS TO ENTER RACE

Democrats Lining Up for Positions in Primary.

Official Call of State Committee
Expected At Any Time To Fix Date.

ANNOUNCEMENTS TO FOLLOW

Frankfort, Ky., May 25.—The action taken at the Third congressional district Democratic convention, held yesterday at Greenville, endorsing the holding of a Democratic state primary on the day of the next November election, to select party nominees for United States senator and state offices, to be voted for a year from that date, may be taken as a forecast of what the state executive committee of the party will very shortly direct to be held. The official call of Chairman Lewis McQuown of a meeting of the executive committee may be expected any day before the close of the present month, and it will be stipulated in that call that the purpose of that meeting is the fixing of the time and manner of selecting party nominees for state offices.

The action of the state executive committee will be followed by a flood of announcements for places on the state ticket. First among them will be that of Gov. Beckham for the nomination for U. S. senator. It being the first time that such selection was ever left directly to the will of the Democratic voters of the state, this race will, of course, attract the greatest attention. Senator McCreary has already declared himself in the race regardless of how the nomination is to be made.

Candidates Pencil.

Another announcement to follow quickly will be that of State Auditor S. W. Hager as a candidate for the gubernatorial nomination. So far no one has given out directly that he will oppose the man from Boyd, but Attorney General N. B. Hays and others have been considering making the race.

There are three promised aspirants for the office of state auditor, which Judge Hager vacates. They are Judge Henry B. Hines, of Warren, who practically announced at the Third district convention; Appellate Clerk J. Morgan Chinn, of Mercer county, and State Treasurer Henry F. Bosworth, of Fayette, who has been doing some quiet political work lately. State Agricultural Commissioner Hubert Vreeland, of Jefferson county, has let his friends know that he is in the race for the nomination for secretary of state, but he has not yet formally announced. No one else has yet been mentioned for this office. Judge Joseph E. Robbins, of Mayfield, and Judge John L. Dorsey, of Henderson, are mentioned for the nomination for attorney general, as is State Senator J. Wheeler Campbell, of McCracken county, and the Hon. John K. Hendrick, of McCracken.

June W. Gayle, of Oldham county, and Ruby Laffoon, of Hopkins county, have been considering the question of running for state treasurer, while former State Senator R. C. Crenshaw, of Christian, and State Senator J. W. Newman, of Woodford, are prospective candidates for state commissioner of agriculture.

The Hon. W. J. Gooch, of Simpson, and Senator G. W. Hickman, of McLean, have frequently been mentioned as possible candidates for lieutenant governor.

Former Representative Claude Desha, of Harrison county, is a candidate for clerk of the court of appeals, while Mr. Sam Bedford, of Owensboro, may also run for that office. No candidates have yet appeared for superintendent of public instruction.

Made Happy for Life.

Great happiness came into the home of S. C. Blair, school superintendent, at St. Albans, W. Va., when his little daughter was restored from the dreadful complaint he names. He says: "My little daughter had St. Vitus' Dance, which yielded to no treatment but grew steadily worse until as a last resort we tried Electric Bitters; and I rejoice to say, three bottles effected a complete cure." Quick, sure cure for nervous complaints, general debility, female weaknesses, impoverished blood and malaria. Guaranteed by McPherson's drug store. Price 50c.

Leader of Bar.

W. A. Morrow, one of the leading members of the Eastern Kentucky bar, died yesterday morning at Somerset.

Had a Close Call.

"A dangerous surgical operation, involving the removal of a malignant ulcer, as large as my hand, from my daughter's hip, was prevented by the application of Bucklen's Arnica Salve," says A. C. Stickle, of Miletus, W. Va. "Persistent use of the Salve completely cured it." Cures cuts, burns and injuries. 25c at McPherson's drug store.

Billy the Buck

By HENRY WALLACE PHILLIPS

Copyright by S. S. McClure Co.

Splendid was the exhibition of strength and agility we looked upon:

He outdid the wildest of our pitching horses for a half minute.

but, alas, its poetry was ripped up the back by the cutaway coat, the plug hat and the unrelated effect of those long, bare red legs twinkling beneath.

Indirectly it was the plug hat that ended the battle. At first it Jimmy-Hit-the-Bottle felt any emotion, whether joy, resentment, terror or anything man can feel, his face did not show it. One of the strangest features of the show was that immaculately calm face suddenly appearing through the dust clouds, unconscious of storm and stress.

At last, however, a yank of the deer's head—Jimmy had him by the horns—caused the plug hat to snap off, and the next second the deer's sharp foot went through it. You will remember Achilles did not get excited until his helmet touched the dust. Well, from what the cold, pale light of fact shows of the size and prowess of those ancient swaggers, Jimmy-Hit-the-Bottle could have picked Achilles up by his vulnerable heel and bumped his brains out against a tree, and this without strain, so when the pride of his life, his precious plug hat, was thus maltreated his rage was vast in proportion.

His eyes shot streaks of black lightning. He twisted the deer's head sideways and with a leap landed on his back. Once there he seized an ear between his strong teeth and shut down. We rose to our feet and yelled. It was wonderful, but chaotic. I would defy a moving picture camera to resolve that tornado into its elements of deer and Injun. We were conscious of curious illusions, such as a deer with a dozen heads growing out of all parts of a body as spherical as this our earth, and an Injun with legs that vetoed all laws of gravitation and anatomy.

Poor Billy Buck! He outdid the wildest of our pitching horses for a half minute, but the two hundred and odd pounds he had on his back told. He couldn't hold the gait. Jimmy wrapped those long legs around him, the deer's tail in one hand, the horn in the other and the ear between his teeth, and waited in grim determination. "Me-ah-a-naa!" said the deer, dropping to his knees.

Jimmy got off him. Billy picked himself up and scampered to the other end of the corral, shaking his head.

The Injun straightened himself up, making an effort to draw a veil of modesty over the pride that shone in his eyes.

"H-nh!" he said. "Fool deer tackle Tatonka-Sutah!" ("Tatonka-Sutah," or Strong Bull, was the more poetic title of Jimmy-Hit-the-Bottle among his own kind.)

He then gravely punched his plug hat into some kind of shape and resumed his work.

We pitched in and bought Jimmy a shiny new plug hat, which will lead me far afield if I don't drop the subject.

Well, he was master of Mr. Billy Buck. When he entered the corral the deer stepped rapidly up to the farther corner and stayed there.

Now came the broadening of Billy's career. A certain man in our nearest town kept a hotel near the railroad depot. For the benefit of the passengers who had to stop there a half hour for meals and recreation this man had a sort of menagerie of the animals natural to the country. There were a bear, a mountain lion, several coyotes, swifts, antelope, deer and a big timber wolf, all in a wire net inclosed park.

It so happened that Steve met Mr. D., the hotel proprietor, on one of his trips to town and told him what a splendid deer he had out at the ranch. Mr. D. became instantly possessed of a desire to own the marvel, and a bargain was concluded on the spot. Billy by this time had shed his horns and was all that could be wished for in the way of amiability. We tied his legs together and shipped him to town in a wagon.

Steve did not trick Mr. D. He told him plainly that the deer was a dangerous customer and that to be careful was to retain a whole skin, but the hotel proprietor, a little fat, pompous man, with a big bass voice—the kind of a man who could have made the world in three days and rested from the fourth to the seventh inclusive had it been necessary—thought he knew something of the deer character. "That beautiful creature, with its mild eyes and humble mien, hurt any one? Nonsense!"

So he had a fine collar made for Billy, with his name on a silver plate, and then led him around town at the end of a chain, being a vain little man who liked to attract attention by any available means. All worked well until the next fall. Mr. D. was lulled into false security by the docility of his pet and allowed him the freedom of the city regardless of protest.

Then came the spectacular end of Billy's easy life. It occurred on another warm autumn day. The passengers of the noon train from the east were assembled in the hotel dining room, putting away supplies as fast as possible, the train being late. The room was crowded, the waiters rushing. Mr. D., swelling with importance, Billy entered the room unnoticed in the general hurry. A negro waiter passed him, holding two loaded trays. Perhaps he brushed against Billy; perhaps Billy didn't even need a provocation. At any rate as the waiter started down the room Billy smote him from behind, and dinner was served!

When the two trays loads of hot coffee, potatoes, soup, chicken and the rest of the bill of fare landed all over the nearest table of guests there was a commotion. Men leaped to their feet, with words that showed they were no gentlemen, making frantic efforts to wipe away the scalding liquids trickling over them. The ladies shrieked and were fearful over the ruin of their pretty gowns.

Mr. D. on the spot instantly quieted his guests as best he could on the one hand and berated the waiter for a clumsy, clubfooted baboon on the other. Explanation was difficult if not impossible. Arms flew, hard words flew, the male guests were not backward in adding their say. Then, even as I had been before, the colored man was vindicated.

Suddenly two women and a man sprang on top of the table and yelled for help. Mr. D. looked upon them open mouthed. The three on top of the table clutched one another and howled in unison. Mr. D.'s eye fell on Billy, crest up, warlike in demeanor, and also on a well dressed man backing rapidly under the table.

A flash of understanding illumined Mr. D. The deer evidently felt a little playful, but it would never do under the circumstances. "Come here, sir!" he commanded. Billy only lived to obey such a command, as I have shown. But this time Mr. D. recognized a difference and went about like a crack yacht. He had intentions of reaching the door. Billy cut off retreat. Mr. D. thought of the well dressed man and dived under the table. Those who had stood uncertain, seeing this line of action taken by one who knew the customs of the country, promptly imitated him. The passengers of the eastern express were ensconced under the tables, with the exception of a handful who had preferred getting on top of them.

Outside three cow punchers who chanced to be riding by were perfectly astonished by the noises that came from that hotel. They dismounted and investigated. When they saw the feet projecting from beneath the cloths and the groups in statuette poses above, they concluded not to interfere, although strongly urged by the victims.

"You are cowards!" cried the man with the two women. The punchers joyfully acquiesced and said, "Sick 'em, boy!" to the deer.

Meanwhile the express and the United States mail were waiting. The conductor, watch in hand, strode up and down the platform.

"What do you suppose they're doing over there?" he asked his brakeman. "The brakeman shrugged his shoulders. "Ask them punchers," he replied. "The conductor lifted his voice. "What's the matter?" he called.

"Oh, come and see! Come and see!" said the punchers. "It's too good to tell!"

The conductor shut his watch with a snap. "Five minutes late," he said. "Pete, go and hustle them people over here. I start in three minutes by the watch."

"Sure," said Pete and slouched across. Pete was surprised at the sight that met his gaze, but orders were orders. He walked up and kicked Billy, at the same time shouting: "All aboard for the west! Git a wiggle on yer!"

The man owed his life to the fact that the deer could get no foothold on the slippery hardwood floor; otherwise he would have been gored to death. As it was, Billy tried to push, and his feet shot out. Man and deer came to the floor together, the brakeman holding hard. The passengers boiled out of the hotel like a mountain torrent. The punchers, thinking that the man was in danger, sprang through the windows and tied the deer. Pete gasped his thanks and hustled out to catch his train. No one was left but Billy, the punchers, the waiters and Mr. D.

"This your deer?" inquired the punchers of the latter.

"It is," said Mr. D. "Take him out and hang him. Don't shoot him. Hang him!"

"All right," replied the punchers. They took Billy out and turned him loose in the deer pen.

"Reckon the old man 'll feel better about it tomorrow," they said. And it came to pass that the old man did feel better, so Billy was spared. Perhaps if you have traveled to the west you have seen him, a noble representative of his kind. Well, this is his private history, which his looks belie.

A GOOD IDEA OF SPACE.

It is Given by a Contemplation of the Star Sigma Draconis.

Stars or planets are said to be "fixed" when they are separated from us by a distance so great that a change in their orbits makes no perceptible difference in their positions, even though such "fixed" bodies may travel an orbit 100,000,000 miles in circumference in the course of a year. These "fixed" stars may be only a few paltry millions of miles away or they may be billions or even trillions of miles from the pygmy planet upon which we have our being. The most distant of all the stars, as far as astronomers know, is the fixed star Sigma Draconis, which is separated from us by a distance so great that millions and billions of miles are only as inches and feet compared to the miles which intervene between our earth and the sun. Astronomers are noted for their propensities for indicating stellar distances with robust and well developed strings of figures, but in the case of Sigma Draconis the distance is so great that figures fail to give any conception whatever.

Light travels at the rate of 186,330 miles per second, and, reckoning the day at twenty-three hours, fifty-six minutes and four seconds in length and the year at 365 1/4 days, an astronomical light year will equal 5,864,006,148,330 miles. The above figures, which represent the distance which light will travel in a year, when multiplied by 129 give us the distance to Sigma Draconis, or, in other words and figures, that star is 129 light years, or 756,000,000,000,000,000 miles, from us! If Sigma had been blotted out of existence before our Revolutionary war began, its light would still be shining as though the star were yet in place!

THEY ARE VERY UGLY.

The Korean Women Are the Homeliest in the World.

I think the assertion may safely be made that the women of Korea are the most unattractive in the world. One of my chief occupations during my stay in the little Hermit Kingdom has been making a diligent search for a passably pretty face. I have failed to find one. It is not that they haven't pretty eyes. They have—eyes of softest brown and gentlest expression. It is not that their features are coarse or irregular, for, while this may be true of many, it is not by any means true of all, and I have caught glimpses of as delicately molded features at Seoul as in any other part of the world.

But the Korean woman is just ugly. She may have fine eyes, she may have a pretty little nose and mouth and other features that in themselves are not at all unattractive, but as she is put together and as her mental life has made her she is ugly.

One doesn't ordinarily see much of the women of the better class in this strange little land; but, being admitted, as I have been, to the imperial palaces and several houses of high degree, I have been at least able to receive impressions. The women who are to be seen on the streets of the cities are usually slaves or servants of a low order; but, whatever they are, they, each and every one of them, look as if they had hurried out into the street without taking time to dress themselves properly.—Ladies Weekly.

A Moorish Legend.

A certain sultan one morning commanded his prime minister to take a census of all the stupid people in his empire and let him have the correct list. The vizier set to work, and at the head of the list, which was a very long one, he placed the name of his sovereign. The latter happened to be in a good humor and merely inquired how he came to merit that distinction. "Sir," the minister replied, "I have entered you on the list because about two days ago you intrusted large sums of money, for the alleged purpose of buying horses abroad, to a couple of men who are entire strangers and who will never come back again."

The Turk.

The Turk practices no trade, engages in no commerce. They have a proverb which says, "The Frank has science, the American commerce, the Ottoman majesty." But, as majesty won't fill stomachs, those who do not serve as soldiers strive to become functionaries, and the men of the small villages, falling in this, do nothing, and the work of the fields and house falls upon the shoulders of the women. One chronicler states that occasionally the man of the house crochets a stocking or mends the baby for a short period.

Making It Easy For Him.

"I must warn you, Bridget," said Mrs. Nuritch, "to see that the peas are thoroughly mashed."

"Mashed, is it?" remarked the new cook in surprise.

"Yes, Mr. Nuritch is so high strung, you know, they make him nervous when they roll off his knife."—Exchange.

Domestic Bookkeeping.

"And what's your reason for increasing the servants' wages, pray?" her friend asked.

"Because my husband complained that my dress and millinery bills equaled the household expenses, and I want to show him they do not."—London Tit-Bits.

Had Him.

He—Isn't dinner ready yet? She—No, dear, I got it according to the time you set the clock when you came in last night, and dinner will be ready in four hours.—Harper's Bazar.

After Identification.

Detective—Could you identify the man who bunked you? The Victim—Identify him? I'll do a good deal more than that to him if I ever get near enough.

CHAPERONE

Recovers Money Loaned Girl While Traveling in Europe.

The court of appeals has decided the case of Mrs. L. H. Cowling against the estate of the late S. N. Leonard, of Eddyville, in favor of the plaintiff. Mrs. Cowling acted as chaperone for a party through Europe several years ago, and in the party was Miss Sallie Leonard, of Eddyville, whose trip cost her $1,800. She ran short and was advanced $600 from Mrs. Cowling. The latter sued to recover it and won in the state court. The defense took an appeal but lost. Miss Leonard is known here where she has often visited relative.

FORD DENIES.

Charges That He Slapped or Abused His Wife.

C. M. Ford, who was charged with striking his wife, denies that he abused her by word or deed. "I went to her home three nights ago," he said, "We are separated and I wished to trade cooking stores with her. The one I proposed to give her was worth much more than the one she had. She ordered me out of the house. I did not slap her. I did not even make threats to her. I am willing to go before any court in the county and prove my innocence."

TOBACCO GROWERS GUARDING PLANTS

Bloodshed May Follow Attempt to Destroy Beds.

Members of Association Protest They Are Opposed to Vandalism and Deplore Acts.

SAYS ENEMIES ARE GUILTY.

Hopkinsville, Ky., May 25.—The excitement which prevailed throughout the dark tobacco district of Kentucky and Tennessee last fall as a result of the destruction of warehouses belonging to and operated by the tobacco trusts at Trenton and Elkton by torch and dynamite has been revived and redoubled by the recent wholesale destruction of plant beds. At first these deeds were confined to that territory lying about the Kentucky and Tennessee line, where dozens of plant beds were destroyed, among them being those of Dudley Taylor, John Ferguson and Rossen & Hinton. Now, however, the depredations have been brought into this immediate vicinity, the plant beds on the farms of L. L. Leavell, J. T. Garnett and J. F. Garnett having been dug up in the dead hours at night by unknown parties. In all cases the marauders accomplished their purpose by scraping the plant beds with hoes, thus cutting off the young plants even with the earth, and so quietly did they go about their work that in no instance was the result known until the next morning.

It was only a few weeks ago that a farmer named Rossen, living near Guthrie, Ky., armed with a shotgun, watched his plant bed one night and fired upon someone who came stealing up during the dark hours. The prowler was struck by the shot, but escaped.

Mr. Leavell has offered a reward of $500 for the arrest and conviction of the guilty parties who visited him, and bloodhounds were taken to the scene in an effort to thus track down the miscreants.

John E. Gardner, of Springfield, Tenn., assistant general manager of the Farmers' Association, stated emphatically that the destruction of plant beds was condemned by the association of officials and members and that the association stood ready to assist in the work of apprehending and punishing the guilty. He charges the trust with inciting deeds.

As a result of this destruction independent farmers all over the district are watching their plant beds, and as they are always well armed some fatalities will probably result should the wantonness continue.

A Year of Blood.

The year 1903 will long be remembered in the home of F. N. Tackett, of Alliance, Ky., as a year of blood; which flowed so copiously from Mr. Tackett's lungs that death seemed very near. He writes: "Severe bleeding from the lungs and a frightful cough had brought me at death's door, when I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, with the astonishing result that after taking four bottles I was completely restored and as time has proven permanently cured." Guaranteed for sore lungs, coughs and colds, at McPherson's Drug Store. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

COOK STEPPED OUT.

Then the Range "Let Go" With a Loud Noise and No Damage.

An explosion of a gas range in the apartments of Mrs. H. S. Wells, in the Empire flats on Broadway near Seventh street, created a panic yesterday afternoon. No fire resulted and no one was injured. The cook had stepped out of the kitchen when the stove "let go." The explosion was loud and shook the walls of the building. After the excitement died down the damage was found to be light and the incident was soon a thing of the past.

GOOD SAMARITANS.

Didn't Pass On That Side of Street
This Morning.

An unknown man walking along South Second street wheeled around several times and fell striking his head against a water plug cutting the right temple an inch or more. He is supposed to have been attacked by a fit, and lay where he had fallen for three quarters of an hour. Meager efforts were made by passers-by to help him, some one placing a bran sack under his head. Finally he got up and went his way. "Man's inhumanity to man makes countless thousands mourn."

J. C. Flournoy Appears Before Judge
Sanders and Railroad Will Be Cited.

THIEF IS TRAILED BY FLOUR

The Illinois Central railroad has been cited for a breach of ordinance and the case will be tried tomorrow in police court.

J. C. Flournoy, the attorney, appeared before Police Judge Sanders this morning and made affidavit that the Illinois Central was guilty of blocking the crossing at Eleventh and Jefferson streets for more than five minutes with a string of freight cars. A great deal of switching is done on the tracks running by Broadway and Jefferson street and although a great deal of complaint had been lodged, this is the first instance in which the company has been cited to answer in some time for blocking this particular street.

Leaves Trail of Flour.

Some one broke into an Illinois Central box car on South First street near Washington this morning at an early hour and stole half a barrel of flour. The thief broke open the barrel and filled his sack. In leaving a long while trail of flour followed him the flour falling out as he made his escape, and by this means he was tracked as far as Ninth and Clark streets. The trail here stopped and the police were unable to go any further.

NEW YARDMASTER FOR NIGHT FORCE

Chief Clerk Graves Receives Merited Promotion.

Has Been Acting in That Capacity
Temporarily and Enters on Permanent Duties.

LOCAL SHOP AND YARD NEWS.

Mr. Clarence Graves has been appointed night yardmaster for the Illinois Central effective today, and is now in charge of his new position. The appointment was announced this morning by the general yardmaster, G. M. Stonebreaker, and comes as a deserved promotion to the young man.

Mr. Graves has been chief clerk in the general yardmaster's office, but assumed the duties of night yardmaster temporarily a few days ago when Yardmaster T. M. Maple went to Ohio to visit relatives. Mr. Maple has signified his intention of not returning, and Mr. Stonebreaker this morning officially made the appointment of his chief clerk to the place permanent.

Mr. Graves has been in the employ of the Illinois Central for years. He was here eight years ago but went West, returning about three years ago. Since that time he has been connected with the road in several different capacities and is thoroughly competent to fill the place.

The young yardmaster is a nephew of Byers Robertson, who at one time was yardmaster for the road here. Mr. Robertson is now in the passenger service running as conductor.

The promotion necessitates several other changes, and means a promotion to several other attaches of the yard office.

Mr. John Danaher, who was traveling yard clerk, was promoted to chief clerk and Walter Seck promoted to Mr. Danaher's position. Several other changes were made in the minor clerical corps, a complete change from the checker on up.

The Railroad company has taken up the complaint made in the councilmanic boards of fast running of Cairo trains in the city limits, and will have it stopped if the speed exceeds the ordinance. The ordinance governing the speed of trains running in the city limits shall not exceed ten miles an hour, and it is alleged that the trains are not run any faster than this limit. Ordinarily pedestrians can tell little of the speed of trains by standing and watching them run.

Mr. J. D. King, special agent for the Louisville division of the Illinois Central, was in the city last night winding up an investigation of box car robberies on the Henderson and Paducah districts of the Illinois Central and has completed his campaign of prosecution.

There are two negroes under arrest for alleged boxcar breaking. One John Thomas, is here and the partner, Frank Evans, is under arrest at Henderson.

"The box car breaking on the Illinois Central is merely an incident," the detective stated at the depot this morning before he left for Louisville. "There is no band of box car breakers operating as at first supposed, but merely an incident of 'hobnobbing.' These two negroes worked together and took merely what they could use. The rush of business probably accounted for the fact that the robberies were not discovered within a short time after committed which made it harder to trace the criminals down."

"I have completed a campaign of prosecution against the two, and believe I will succeed in landing them in the penitentiary."

Mr. King left this morning for the division to look up several other matters pertaining to irregularities on the district.

An excursion of Woodmen of the World will be run into Paducah from Illinois Sunday, May 27.

The train will be made up at Carbondale, Ill., and the excursion run under the auspices of the Cobden, Ill., lodge, W. O. W. It will leave Carbondale at 7:15 and run via Mounds and Cairo, Ill., arriving at Mounds at 8:50. It will arrive in Paducah at 10:20. This will be the first excursion into Paducah from this territory this summer, and a large crowd is expected.

Storekeeper Returns.

Mr. John Trent, storekeeper for the Illinois Central, returned from Chicago this morning after attending the third annual convention of the Railway Storekeepers' association of America. The meeting lasted three days, and was a success. There were about 175 in attendance and some of the biggest storekeepers from the east and western roads were in attendance. Mr. Trent was one of the few from the south.

Mr. G. R. Rainey, of the Illinois Central, is ill at the railroad hospital.

Mr. W. J. Harahan, fourth vice president of the Illinois Central road, will pass through Paducah this afternoon late going to New Orleans from the East. He is on an inspection tour. He will not stop over in Paducah, it is understood.

CIVIL TERM

DRAWING SLOWLY TO CONCLU-SION IN CIRCUIT COURT.

Woman Sues the Traction Company for Damages for Alleged Personal Injuries.

The civil term of McCracken circuit court is dragging, there being little of interest done. This morning the session lasted a short time, the court adjourning before 10 o'clock.

In the action of Roy L. Cullley against Clara Cullley, judgment for divorce was filed.

In the case of Ida Rose against Ezra Rose judgment for divorce was filed.

Minnie Burradel filed suit this morning in circuit court against The Paducah Traction company for $10,000 damages. She alleges that on April 28th she attempted to board a car on South Third street but that it started up too soon. She was at the time holding her four-year-old boy in position on the car, preparatory to boarding herself, and was forced to run 25 feet with the car to prevent his falling off and being injured. She claims internal and permanent injuries to herself.

Marriage Licenses.

John Rushing, city, age 24 years old, and Sue Kelley, age 21 years, were yesterday licensed to marry.

Colored Teachers.

County Superintendent J. S. Billington is today holding examinations for colored applicants for county school teachers' certificates and there are four applicants. They are Laura Carruthers, Leona Edwards, Eula Allen and Geo. Marthel, all of the county.

In Admiralty.

In the case of Fairbanks, Morse & Company the gasoline boat White Oak, three of the libels for $1,350, $40 and $47.54 respectively, were dismissed, and two for $9.98 and $45, respectively, were sustained by Judge Evans.

Wants Paducah Ideas.

Mr. and Mrs. M. P. McDow, of Fulton Ky., are in the city today. Mr. and Mrs. McDow will look at the best stores in the city to get ideas on store management and methods. They are preparing to open a first-class store in Fulton and chose Paducah as a city with progressive retail organizations.

County Judge R. T. Lightfoot will have either incandescent lights or one big arc light placed on the court house cupola. He thinks it will beautify the building a great deal, and at the same time furnish light for the big yard.

We often wonder why the man who is always boasting of the splendid positions offered him continue to hold down a cheap job.

HOO-DOO SPELL

MAY FIGURE IN TROUBLE GROW-ING OUT OF JOKE.

Foreman Puts Snake's Tail in Negro's Pocket and Latter
Consults Lawyer.

Half an inch of a snake's tail caused a negro switchman, and one of the best and most reliable in the local Illinois Central yards, to come to woe. It may mean, before the matter ends, a "bunch of correspondence," which is characteristic of the railroad.

Kelley Charlton, foreman of a south yard switch engine, slipped the snake's tail in the switchman's trouser pocket. It was a small part of the snake, one which had been killed by an engine, but was large enough to throw the negro into fits of fear. He did not know how the snake tail got in his pocket, and moreover did not care. It was there, and that was sufficient.

Without parley he hid himself to the yard office, stripped off his overalls, and ran for town. The first place he made for was a lawyer's office and operations began in earnest.

First a letter was written to the superintendent of the division, another to the agent and several other officials, and the end of the escapade is yet to be learned.

The switchman refuses to return to work, and his attitude is anything but the most benevolent. The incident means more to the switchman than the joker thought, and the outcome will be watched with interest. It is said that he wants damages.

Theatrical Notes

Excellent Vaudeville.

The vaudeville offerings of Manager William Malone at the Wallace park theater this week are proving popular, and each night the attendance has been very good. The same bills will be produced tonight and tomorrow night, but change of program is announced for next week.

CLAIMS WATCH.

Omer McGough Has Been Sick Since
He Was Robbed.

Omer McGough, who was a passenger on the Dick Fowler, several months ago, and had his watch stolen from him, claimed the time piece this morning. He lives at Sikeston, Mo., and had been ill since the robbery. The robbery was committed between Paducah and Cairo, and Paducah officers arrested the thief who got a term in the penitentiary for his act.
